But where a firm elects, in relation to a credit card agreement, to comply before that date with CONC as amended by that Instrument, it must comply with the relevant provisions in full. Between 9 and 10 months after this communication is required to be sent, CONC 6.7.29R requires firms to take the additional steps set out in that rule with respect to that group of customers. 18 months after this CONC 6.7.27R communication is required to be sent, CONC 6.7.30R to CONC 6.7.40G potentially require the firm to take the further steps described in those rules in relation to that group of customers where CONC 6.7.30R applies. CONC 6.7.30R applies only where the amount that customer has paid to the firm towards the credit card balance, over the 18-month period following the date on which the CONC 6.7.27R communication was triggered, comprises a lower amount in principal than in interest, fees and charges. This means that the earliest date on which a firm may have obligations under CONC 6.7.30R is 1 March 2020 (except as mentioned below). However, firms are not required to delay implementation to the end of the six-month period set out in TP 7A.1: where a firm takes a step in compliance with one of the rules in question before 1 September 2018 in relation to a particular credit card agreement (for example, carrying out the 18-month review), the time for taking all subsequent steps required to be taken under those rules is to be determined by reference to the date of that first

Schedule 5 Rights of action for damages

Sch 5

Sch 5.1	G	The table below sets out the rules in CONC contravention of which by an authorised person may be actionable under section 138D of the Act (Actions for damages) by a person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention.
Sch 5.2	G	If a "Yes" appears in the column headed "For private person?", the rule may be actionable by a " private person " under section 138D (or, in certain circumstances, his fiduciary or representative; see article 6(2) and (3)(c) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/2256)). A "Yes" in the column headed "Removed" indicates that the FCA has removed the right of action under section 138D(2) of the Act . If so, a reference to the rule in which it is removed is also given.
Sch 5.3	G	The column headed "For other person?" indicates whether the rule may be actionable by a person other than a private person (or his fiduciary or representative) under article 6(2) and (3) of those Regulations. If so, an indication of the type of person by whom the rule may be actionable is given.

	(1)	(1) CONC 3.3.1 R (2) provides that if, in relation to a particular communication or financial promotion, a firm takes reasonable steps to ensure it complies with the clear, fair and not misleading rule, a contravention of that rule does not give rise to a right of action under section 138D of the Act.
	(2) The definition of private person includes a "relevant recipient of credit" which is defined on article 60L of the Regulated Activities Order as "a partnership consisting of two or three persons not all of whom are bodies corporate, or an unincorporated body of persons which does not consist entirely of bodies corporate and is not a partnership".

The definition of private person includes a person who is, by virtue of article 36J of that Order, to be regarded as a person who uses, may use, has or may have used or has or may have contemplated using, services provided by authorised persons in carrying on a regulated activity of the kind specified by article 36H of that Order or article 64 of that Order so far as relevant to that (3) activity.

Schedule 6 Rules that can be waived

Sch 6

As a result of section 138A of the Act (Modification or waiver of rules) the FCA has power to waive all its rules, other than rules made under section 137O (Threshold condition code), section 247 (Trust scheme rules) or section 248 (Scheme particulars rules) of the Act.
