Chapter 1 Market Abuse

1.4 Unlawful disclosure

- 1.4.1 UK [deleted]
- 1.4.1A UK [article 10 of the Market Abuse Regulation]

Descriptions of behaviour that indicate unlawful disclosure

- 1.4.2 G The following behavioursare indications of unlawful disclosure:
  - (1) disclosure of inside information by the director of an issuer to another in a social context; and
  - (2) selective briefing of analysts by directors of issuers or others who are persons discharging managerial responsibilities.

Descriptions of behaviour that does not indicate unlawful disclosure •••••

- G 1.4.3 The following behaviour indicates that a person is acting in the normal exercise of their employment, profession or duties, if a person makes a disclosure of inside information:
  - (1) to a government department, the Bank of England, the Competition Commission, the Takeover Panel or any other regulatory body or authority for the purposes of fulfilling a legal or regulatory obligation; or
  - (2) otherwise to such a body in connection with the performance of the functions of that body.
- G 1.4.4 Disclosure of inside information which is required or permitted by Part 6 rules (or any similar regulatory obligation) maynot amount to unlawful disclosure .
- 1.4.4A Disclosure of inside information by a broker to a potential buyer regarding the fact that the seller of financial instruments is a person discharging managerial responsibilities or the identity of the person discharging managerial responsibilities or the purpose of the sale by the person discharging managerial responsibilities where:

the disclosure is made only to the extent necessary, and solely in order to dispose of the investment;

- (2) the illiquidity of the stock is such that the transaction could not otherwise be completed; and
- (3) the transaction could not be otherwise completed without creating a disorderly market;

may not, of itself, amount to unlawful disclosure.

Factors to be taken into account in determining whether or not behaviour amounts to unlawful disclosure

1.4.5 G

The following factors are to be taken into account in determining whether or not the disclosure was made by a person in the proper course of the exercise of his employment, profession or duties, and are indications that it was:

- (1) whether the disclosure is permitted by the rules of a trading venue a prescribed auction platform, of the FCA or the Takeover Code; or
- (2) whether the disclosure is accompanied by the imposition of confidentiality requirements upon the person to whom the disclosure is made and is:
  - (a) reasonable and is to enable a person to perform the proper functions of his employment, profession or duties; or
  - (b) reasonable and is (for example, to a professional adviser) for the purposes of facilitating or seeking or giving advice about a transaction or takeover bid; or
  - (c) reasonable and is for the purpose of facilitating any commercial, financial or investment transaction (including prospective underwriters or placees of securities); or
  - (d) reasonable and is for the purpose of obtaining a commitment or expression of support in relation to an offer which is subject to the Takeover Code; or
  - (e) in fulfilment of a legal obligation, including to employee representatives or trade unions acting on their behalf.

Examples of unlawful disclosure

1.4.6 G

The following descriptions are intended to assist in understanding certain behaviours which may constitute unlawful disclosure under the Market Abuse Regulation:

- (1) X, a director at B PLC has lunch with a friend, Y, who has no connection with B PLC or its advisers. X tells Y that his company has received a takeover offer that is at a premium to the current share price at which it is trading.
- (2) A, a person discharging managerial responsibilities in B PLC, asks C, a broker, to sell some or all of As shares in B PLC. C discloses to a potential buyer that A is a person discharging managerial responsibilities or discloses the identity of A, in circumstances where the fact that A is a person discharging managerial responsibilities or the identity of A, is inside information .
