

Chapter 7

Periodical publications, news services and broadcasts: applications for certification

7.2 Introduction

Exclusion for advice given in certain publications and services

7.2.1 G Advice is excluded by article 54 of the Regulated Activities Order from the regulated activities of advising on investments, advising on regulated credit agreements for the acquisition of land, advising on a home finance transaction and advising on conversion or transfer of pension benefits if:

- (1) the advice is given in a publication or service that is in one of three formats (see ■ PERG 7.4.3 G and ■ PERG 7.4.4 G); and
- (2) the principal purpose of the particular format is neither to give certain advice nor to lead to (or enable) certain transactions to be carried out (see ■ PERG 7.4.5 G and ■ PERG 7.4.10 G).

Certificate that the exclusion applies

7.2.2 G If a person would, but for the exclusion, be carrying on the regulated activities of advising on investments, advising on regulated credit agreements for the acquisition of land, advising on a home finance transaction or advising on conversion or transfer of pension benefits, or any or each of them, and will be doing so as a business in the United Kingdom (see ■ PERG 7.3), he may wish to apply to the FCA for a certificate that the exclusion applies (see ■ PERG 7.6). However, a person does not need a certificate to get the benefit of the exclusion. In many cases it will be clear that the exclusion in article 54 applies and a certificate is not called for. A certificate may be appropriate, however, where the exclusion appears to apply but there may be an element of doubt. The granting of a certificate would remove any such doubt.

Certificates under the Financial Services Act 1986

7.2.3 G Certificates given under paragraph 25 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act 1986 (Exclusion for periodical publications giving investment advice) ceased to have effect on 1 December 2001. Holders of such certificates must consider their position under the terms of the new exclusion. If a person considers that a certificate might be appropriate, a new application must be made.
