8.27 Advice to be given to persons in their capacity as investors (on the merits of their investing as principal or agent)

- 8.27.1 G For the purposes of article 53(1), advice must be given to or directed at someone who either holds investments or is a prospective investor (or their agent). Where the investment is a risk-only contract of insurance such as house contents insurance, the policyholder or prospective policyholder is regarded as an investor.
- 8.27.2 G Article 53(1) does not apply where the advice is given to persons who receive
 - (1) an adviser who may use it to inform advice given by him to persons for whom he does not act as agent; or
 - (2) a journalist or broadcaster; or
 - (3) an employer (for example, on setting up a pension scheme).
- 8.27.3 Article 53(1) does not apply to advice given to a person (such as an independent financial adviser) who is acting as an agent for an investor if it does not relate to a transaction into which the person is to enter as agent for the investor.
- G 8.27.4 Article 53(1) does apply where the recipient is someone who invests on behalf of other persons (whether as a principal or agent), such as:
 - (1) a trustee or nominee; or
 - (2) a discretionary fund manager; or
 - (3) an attorney or anyone else who enters into investment transactions as agent for investors;

where he receives the advice in that capacity.

8.27.5 G Advice will still be covered by article 53(1) even though it may not be given to or directed at a particular investor (for example, advice given in a periodical publication or on a website). The expression 'investor' has a broad meaning and will include institutional or professional investors.
