Principles for Businesses

Chapter 1
Introduction

1.1 Application and purpose

Application

- 1.1.1 G The Principles (see ■ PRIN 2) apply in whole or in part to every firm. The application of the Principles is modified for firms conducting MiFID business and Annex II benchmark administrators. ■ PRIN 3 (Rules about application) specifies to whom, to what and where the Principles apply.
- 1.1.1A The Principles also apply to certain payment service providers and electronic money issuers that are not firms. ■ PRIN 3.1.1AR sets out the application of the Principles to these persons. The references to a firm in ■ PRIN 2 includes such persons.

Purpose

- G 1.1.2 The Principles are a general statement of the fundamental obligations of firms and the other persons to whom they apply under the regulatory system. They derive their authority from the FCA's rule-making powers as set out in the Act, including as applied by the Payment Services Regulations and the Electronic Money Regulations, and reflect the statutory objectives.
- 1.1.3 G [deleted]

Link to fit and proper standard

- G 1.1.4 In substance, the Principles express the main dimensions of the "fit and proper" standard set for firms in threshold condition 5 (Suitability), although they do not derive their authority from that standard or exhaust its implications. Being ready, willing and organised to abide by the Principles is therefore a critical factor in applications for Part 4A permission, and breaching the Principles may call into guestion whether a firm with Part 4A permission is still fit and proper.
- 1.1.4A For persons authorised or registered under the Payment Services Regulations or the Electronic Money Regulations, the relevant "fit and proper standards" are the standards set in those Regulations.

Taking group activities into account

1.1.5 G

Principles 3 (Management and control), 4 (Financial prudence) and (in so far as it relates to disclosing to the FCA) 11 (Relations with regulators) take into account the activities of members of a firm's group. Compliance by another person to whom the Principles apply with Principles 3, 4 and 11 can also be affected by the activities of other persons who are members of their group. This does not mean that, for example, inadequacy of a group member's risk management systems or resources will automatically lead to a firm contravening Principle 3 or 4. Rather, the potential impact of a group member's activities (and, for example, risk management systems operating on a group basis) will be relevant in determining the adequacy of the firm's risk management systems or resources respectively.

Standards in markets outside the United Kingdom

1.1.6 G

As set out in PRIN 3.3 (Where?), Principles 1 (Integrity), 2 (Skill, care and diligence) and 3 (Management and control) apply to world-wide activities in a prudential context. Principle 5 (Market conduct) applies to world-wide activities which might have a negative effect on confidence in the UK financial system. In considering whether to take regulatory action under these Principles in relation to activities carried on outside the United Kingdom, the FCA will take into account the standards expected in the market in which the firm or other person to whom the Principles apply is operating. Principle 11 (Relations with regulators) applies to world-wide activities; in considering whether to take regulatory action under Principle 11 in relation to cooperation with an overseas regulator, the FCA will have regard to the extent of, and limits to, the duties owed by the firm or other person to that regulator. (Principle 4 (Financial prudence) also applies to world-wide activities.)

1.1.6A G

■ PRIN 4 (Principles: MiFID Business) provides guidance on the application of the Principles to MiFID business.

Consequences of breaching the Principles

1.1.7 G

Breaching a Principle makes a firm or other person to whom the Principles apply liable to disciplinary sanctions. In determining whether a Principle has been breached it is necessary to look to the standard of conduct required by the Principle in question. Under each of the Principles the onus will be on the FCA to show that a firm or other person has been at fault in some way. What constitutes "fault" varies between different Principles. Under Principle 1 (Integrity), for example, the FCA would need to demonstrate a lack of integrity in the conduct of a firm's or other person's business. Under Principle 2 (Skill, care and diligence) a firm or other person would be in breach if it was shown to have failed to act with due skill, care and diligence in the conduct of its business. Similarly, under Principle 3 (Management and control) a firm or other person would not be in breach simply because it failed to control or prevent unforeseeable risks; but a breach would occur if the firm or other person had failed to take reasonable care to organise and control its affairs responsibly or effectively.

1.1.8 G

The Principles are also relevant to the FCA's powers of information-gathering, to vary a firm's Part 4A permission or authorisation or registration under the Payment Services Regulations or Electronic Money Regulations, and of investigation and intervention, and provide a basis on which the FCA may apply to a court for an injunction or restitution order or require a firm or other person to make restitution. However, the Principles do not give rise to actions for damages by a private person (see PRIN 3.4.4 R).

Some of the other rules and guidance in the Handbook deal with the bearing of the Principles upon particular circumstances. However, since the Principles are also designed as a general statement of regulatory requirements applicable in new or unforeseen situations, and in situations in which there is no need for guidance, the FCA's other rules and guidance or onshored regulations should not be viewed as exhausting the implications of the Principles themselves.

Responsibilities of providers and distributors under the Principles

1.1.10 G RPPD contains guidance on the responsibilities of providers and distributors for the fair treatment of customers under the Principles.

1.2 Clients and the Principles

Characteristics of the client

1.2.1 G

Principles 6 (Customers' interests), 7 (Communications with clients), 8 (Conflicts of interest), 9 (Customers: relationships of trust), 10 (Clients' assets) and 12 (Consumer Duty) impose requirements on firms expressly in relation to their clients or customers. These requirements depend, in part, on the characteristics of the client or customer concerned. This is because what is "due regard" (in Principles 6 and 7), "fairly" (in Principles 6 and 8), "clear, fair and not misleading" (in Principle 7), "reasonable care" (in Principle 9), "adequate" (in Principle 10) or "good outcomes" (in Principle 12) will, of course, depend on those characteristics.

 - (iii) an average number of employees during the year of 250;
 - (c) [deleted]
 - (d) a partnership or unincorporated association which has net assets of at least £10 million (or its equivalent in any other currency at the relevant time) (and calculated, in the case of a limited partnership, without deducting loans owing to any of the partners);
 - (e) a trustee of a trust (other than an occupational pension scheme, SSAS, personal pension scheme or stakeholder pension scheme) with assets of at least £10 million (or its equivalent in any other currency), calculated by aggregating the value of the cash and designated investments forming part of the trust's assets, but before deducting its liabilities;
 - (f) a trustee of an occupational pension scheme or SSAS, or a trustee or operator of a personal pension scheme or stakeholder pension scheme where the scheme has (or has had at any time during the previous two years):

- (i) at least 50 members; and
- (ii) assets under management of not less than £10 million (or its equivalent in any other currency at the relevant time); and
- (2)the firm has, before commencing business with the client on an eligible counterparty basis:
 - advised the client in writing that he is being categorised as an eligible (a) counterparty for the purposes of PRIN;
 - given a written warning to the client that he will lose protections under (b) the regulatory system;
 - (c) for a client falling under (1)(a) or (b):
 - taken reasonable steps to ensure that the written notices required by (a) and (b) have been delivered to a person authorised to take such a decision for the client; and
 - (ii) not been notified by the client that the client objects to being classified as an eligible counterparty;
 - for a client falling under (1)(c), (d), (e) or (f): (d)
 - taken reasonable steps to ensure that the written notices re-(i) quired by (a) and (b) have been delivered to a person authorised to take such a decision for the client; and
 - obtained the client's written consent or is otherwise able to (ii) demonstrate that consent has been given.
