Handbook requirements for service companies

SERV 1 : Handbook requirements for service companies

1.1 Application and Purpose

- 1.1.1 This special guide is for service companies. Its purpose is to help service companies find their way around the Handbook by setting out which parts of it apply to them.
- G 1.1.2 Service companies are firms whose regulated activities are restricted to making arrangements with a view to transactions in investments and agreeing to carry on that regulated activity. They are, in the main, technology companies who provide order routing, post-trade processing, or other services to market participants which assist them to deal in investments or arrange (bring about) deals in investments among themselves. A lighttouch regulatory regime applies to service companies as set out in this Special guide.

Standards	Conduct of Business sourcebook (COBS)	Only some parts of COBS apply to service companies: see COBS 18.10. The permission given to service companies means that they must not approve financial promotions on behalf of another person or specified class of person, or deal with private customers. If the firm communicates financial promotions to eligible counterparties and professional clients only, the financial promotion rules will have only very limited application.

		However, a firm which does not, and notifies the FCA under DISP 1.1.12 R that it does not, conduct business with eligible complainants (persons eligible to have a complaint considered under the Financial Ombudsman Service, as defined in DISP 2.4) will be exempt from the rules on treating complainants fairly (DISP 1.2 to DISP 1.11) and from the Financial Ombudsman Funding rules (FEES 5.1 to FEES 5.7).

	Compensation sourcebook (COMP)	COMP does not apply to service companies, which are not participant firms under the compensation scheme, and are exempt from funding it.
