(1) it considers the draft client assets report provided to the firm by its auditor in accordance with $\square$ SUP 3.10.8DR (1) in order to provide an explanation of:
(a) the circumstances that gave rise to each of the breaches identified in the draft report; and

3.11.3 G The FCA expects a firm to use the client assets report as a tool to evaluate the effectiveness of the systems that it has in place for the purpose of complying with requirements to which ■ SUP 3.10.5 R refers. Accordingly, a firm should ensure that the report is integrated into its risk management framework and decision-making.

3.11.4 G

- SUP 3.4.2 R provides that a firm must take reasonable steps to ensure that its auditor has the required skill, resources and experience to perform its functions. The FCA expects a firm to keep under review the adequacy of the skill, resources and experience of its auditor and should critically assess the content of the client assets report as part of that ongoing review.
