If any disclosures are made in the fitness and propriety section of the Notification of changes in personal information or application details, full details should be provided in support of the application. This includes disclosures about any previous disciplinary investigation by previous regulators or employers involving the candidate.

We take non-disclosure seriously, especially where there is an apparent attempt to mislead. Non-disclosure will add to the seriousness of the undisclosed issue. If our vetting checks reveal any matters that have not been disclosed, then applications will be subject to investigation and the candidate's suitability to be approved will be called into question. A person who knowingly or recklessly provides information to the FCA that is false or misleading may commit a criminal offence, and could face prosecution under section 398 of the Act regardless of the status of their application.

You should also be aware that, while advice may be sought from a third party (e.g. legal advice), responsibility for the accuracy of information, as well as the disclosure of relevant information, on the form is ultimately the responsibility of the firm and the candidate.

Paper Form D

If you answer 'yes' to any of the questions in this section, you must give complete details in Section 6 of the Form and attach relevant supporting documentation.

Terms used:

- Criminal proceedings – includes any proceedings from the point at which an individual or a firm is charged with a criminal offence to the point at which sentence is given.
- Conviction – includes any absolute or conditional discharge orders made against the person concerned.
- Judgement debt – a court judgment or order requiring a payment of money to be made by the Individual or by a firm at which the Individual previously held a position of significant influence.
- Authorisation – includes any authorisation, licence, registration, approval, notification, membership or relevant permission required to carry on any activity. This need not be an activity regulated by the FCA but applies to all activities requiring some kind of authorisation.
- Position of Influence – includes acting as a controller, director, senior manager, managing member, designated member, partner company secretary, or otherwise performing a role of similar influence or responsibility.

- Regulated activities – includes not only activities regulated by the FCA under FSMA, but also the Payment Services Regulations 2009 and Electronic Money Regulations 2011. It also includes activities regulated by other regulatory bodies (see definition of 'regulatory body' below)
- Regulatory body – For the purposes of this form, a regulatory body includes but is not limited to the following:
 - a self-regulatory organisation – including Investment Management Regulatory Organisation (IMRO), Securities and Futures Agency (SFA), Personal Investment Authority (PIA), Life Assurance and Unit Trust Regulatory Organisation (LAUTRO), Financial Intermediaries, Managers and Brokers Regulatory Association (FIMBRA), Association of Futures Brokers and Dealers Limited (AFBD), The Securities Association Limited (TSA);
 - a statutory body, including the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), Prudential Regulatory Authority (PRA), Financial Services Authority (FSA), Office of Fair Trading (OFT), Securities and Investments Board (SIB), the Society of Lloyd's, the Registry of Friendly Societies, the Friendly Societies Commission, the Building Societies Commission, the Bank of England, HMRC, the Treasury – Insurance Directorate (formerly the DTI) and the recognised bodies;

 - a designated professional body (a professional body designated by the Treasury under section 326A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000); or the equivalent of any of these regulatory bodies overseas.

It is for senior management to decide what checks should be made. Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (the Order) (see Articles 3 and 4 of the Order) the FCA and/or PRA and the firm have a right to ask about spent, as well as unspent, criminal convictions for employment purposes about candidates for approved person status.

Cautions are not within the ambit of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Hence cautions never become spent and if asked, a candidate must inform a potential employer and the FCA and/or PRA whether he/she has received a caution.
