CAPITAL SUBSTITUTES: TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

1.2.6 G The financial resource requirements of the Financial Services Act regulators permitted certain types of borrowings or facilities to be treated as part of a firm's capital resources. The most common example is that of a subordinated loan which met the relevant conditions. The following provisions permit firms to continue to use these borrowings or facilities in the same way as under the relevant previous regulator's rules, provided that certain conditions are met.

1.2.7 R (1) If a firm was, immediately before commencement permitted to treat "relevant funds" as part of its capital resources under the financial resource rules of a previous regulator applicable to the firm, it may treat those funds in an equivalent manner under the corresponding provisions of IPRU-INV, provided that the conditions in (3) are met.

- (2) For the purposes of this rule "relevant funds" are funds provided to the firm under the terms of

(a) a subordinated loan agreement; or

(b) qualifying undertaking; or

(c) any other instrument treated in an equivalent manner under the financial resources rules applicable to the firm.
- (3) The conditions referred to in (1) are either:

(a) in the case of a subordinated loan agreement, qualifying undertaking or other relevant instrument to which the firm's previous regulator is not party:

(i) the parties to it treat all rights (including, without limitation, rights to notice) which the agreement, undertaking or instrument grants to the firm's previous regulator as having been granted to the appropriate regulator; and

(ii) if there is a variation of the commercial terms the parties include, in the terms of the instrument executed to effect the variation, provision to substitute reference to the appropriate regulator in place of any reference to the firm's previous regulator; or

(b) in the case of a subordinated loan agreement, qualifying undertaking or other relevant instrument to which the firm's previous regulator is party, the parties treat the rights accorded to the self regulating organisation under the relevant instrument as having been assigned to the appropriate regulator immediately before commencement.
