Chapter 3

Notification rules for UK recognised bodies

3.19 Investigations

- 3.19.1 Where a UK recognised body becomes aware that a person has been appointed by any regulatory body (other than the FCA or a UK recognised body) to investigate:
 - (1) any business transacted by means of its facilities or
 - (2) any aspect of the clearing facilitation services which it provides;

it must immediately give the FCA notice of that event.

- 3.19.2 G A UK recognised body need not give the FCA notice of:
 - (1) routine inspections or visits undertaken in the course of regular monitoring, complaints handling or as part of a series of 'theme visits'; or
 - (2) routine requests for information; or
 - (3) investigations into the conduct of members of the UK recognised body or of other users of its facilities where the use of its facilities is a small or incidental part of the subject matter of the investigation.

REC 3/2