

Appendix 1

Names

1.1 Expressions covered by further guidance

App 1.1 This Appendix explains our guidance on particular words or expressions, in addition to the guidance on RFCCBS 3.8 of this document. We generally consider a name to be undesirable if it includes an expression listed below and does not follow the accompanying guidance. Our guidance below applies as much to derivations and versions of the words below as it does to the full word. For instance, we would generally treat 'co-op', 'co-operatives' and 'coop' in the same way as 'co-operative'.

Adjudicator	London SW1H 0ET This expression normally implies the society has a quasi-judicial role similar to decisions made by a court of law, an administrative tribunal, an official ombudsman or government officials. You can use this expression if a government body or relevant body confirms (letter or email) that it has no objection.
Agency	This word will normally be allowed provided it does not imply a connection with a government department or body, or a local or any public authority unless the relevant body confirms (letter or email) it has no objection.
Alba Na h-Alba Albannach	This expression could imply a connection with a government department or body, or a local or any public authority. You can use this expression if the relevant body confirms (letter or email) that it has no objection. This applies even if the word is a surname. If you wish to use this word at the start of your society name, you will need to demonstrate that the society is pre-eminent or very substantial in its field. You will also need to provide independent support from a representative body, trade association or other relevant body. The society's registered office or principal place of business must be in Scotland. If this word is used elsewhere in the name, the society's registered office or principal place of business must be in Scotland.
Anzac	If you want to use the word because it is a surname you will normally be given approval if the proposed name includes forenames or initials. This word is protected under section 1 of the Anzac (Restriction on Trade Use of Word) Act 1916 and will not be allowed in a society or business name.
Architect	With the exception of 'naval architect', 'landscape architect' or 'golf-course architect', the use of this word is controlled under section 20 of the Architects Registration Act 1997. You can use this expression if the body shown below confirms by letter or email that it has no objection. Architects Registration Board 8 Weymouth Street London W1W 5BU

Foundation

To use this expression the society should normally be a community benefit society (or a pre-commencement society conducting its business for the benefit of the community). The rules should include objects that reflect the specific purpose of the society and a non-profit distribution clause, which provides that any profits should be used to further the objects of the society and not paid to the members as dividends.

The society should have a pool of money or a regular source of finance available to promote the objects. You will need to confirm this when you submit your application.

This expression could imply a connection with the Northern Ireland Assembly or Executive, a government department or body, or a local or any public authority. You can use this expression if the relevant body confirms by letter or email that it has no objection.

If you wish to use this expression at the start of your society name or 'of Northern Ireland' anywhere in the name, you will need to show that the society is pre-eminent or very substantial in its field by providing independent support from a representative body, trade association or other relevant body. The society's registered office or principal place of business must be in Northern Ireland.

If the word does not imply a connection with government and is not the first word in the name, it will normally be allowed. The society's registered office or principal place of business must be in Northern Ireland.

Ombudsman
Ombwdsmon

This expression is normally associated with a statutory organisation appointed by government or an organisation authorised to investigate complaints, generally on behalf of individuals such as consumers or taxpayers, against private or public institutions. These organisations may request relevant information from parties in relation to a dispute.

If you are not a statutory body you must:

- be certified as a provider of alternate dispute resolution by Trading Standards Institute (the body appointed by the Secretary of State for Business Innovation and Skills to carry out such certification), or other competent authority set out in the Consumer Protection, Alternative Dispute Resolution for Consumer Disputes (Competent Authorities and Information) Regulations 2015; and
- be a member of the Ombudsman Association at ombudsman level
- membership; and have a proven track record in dispute resolution in respect of the activity that forms the basis of your application. We would normally expect that track record to be for at least 12 months.

Ophthalmic Optician Optician Optometrist	To support the application to register a society name or to obtain approval to use a business name, you should provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •evidence of certification by the relevant Competent Authority; •a copy of an email or letter from the Ombudsman Association (or other evidence) confirming your ombudsman level membership; •evidence of providing dispute resolution for consumers in the sector you wish to operate in, including membership numbers, member names and examples of case studies relating to dispute resolution. If you don't meet all of these criteria, you should register using a different name and, if applicable, reapply later when you can demonstrate that you do meet them.
