3.8.9 G ...

(6) If the financial promotion relates to securities, or to an investment trust savings scheme for dealing in securities, in respect of which the conditions in (a), (b) and (c) are satisfied, then the firm should ensure that the risks associated with the relevant investment approaches in (b) are properly explained. The conditions are that:

(a) The securities are

(i) listed in the United Kingdom under chapter 21 of the listing rules (Investment entities); or

(ii) issued by an investment trust and listed in an EEA State other than the United Kingdom;

(b) the issuer of the securities in (a):

(i) uses or proposes to use gearing as an investment strategy; or

(ii) invests or proposes to invest in securities that satisfy the conditions in (a) and the issuer of such securities uses or proposes to use gearing as an investment strategy; and

(c) the securities are likely to be subject to fluctuations in value which are significant compared with the likely fluctuations in value of the underlying investments.

Amendments to the Glossary

Insert the following new definitions in the appropriate alphabetical position:

- gearing* (in COB) a strategy, with a view to enhancing the return for, or the value of, a security without increasing the amount invested by the holders of the security, involving one or more of the following:
- (a) borrowing money;
 - (b) investing in one or more instruments, such as (but not limited to) warrants or derivatives, for which a relatively small movement in the value or price of the underlying rights or assets to which the instrument relates, whether favourable or adverse, results in a larger movement in the value or price of the instrument; and
 - (c) structuring the rights of holders of a security so that a relatively small movement in the price or value of the underlying rights or assets, whether favourable or adverse, results in a larger movement in the price or value of the security.
