10A.14 Changes to an FCA-approved person’s details

Moving within a firm

10A.14.4 D (1) A firm must use Form E where an approved person is both permanently ceasing to perform one or more controlled functions and needs to be approved in relation to one or more FCA controlled functions within the same firm or group.

10A.14.4AB G (1) A firm should only use a Form E when the candidate is ceasing to perform a controlled function in a way that means that the candidate will cease to be approved for that controlled function.

(2) See SUP 10A.14.8AG to SUP 10A.14.8DG for the difference between temporarily ceasing to perform a controlled function (which means that approval for the performance of that controlled function continues) and permanently ceasing to perform a controlled function (which means that approval for the performance of that controlled function lapses).

(3) (1) and (2) are the reason that SUP 10A.14.4D refers to permanently ceasing to perform a controlled function.

Ceasing to perform an FCA-controlled function

10A.14.8 R (1) A firm must submit to the FCA a completed Form C (SUP 10C Annex 5R) no later than ten business days after an FCA-approved person permanently ceases to perform an FCA controlled function.
10A.14.8A G Permanently ceasing to perform an FCA controlled function means that that person no longer has approval to perform that function. Permanent cessation does not mean that that person cannot return to perform that function, rather that if they do, they will need fresh approval.

10A.14.8C G In cases of temporary absence (for example sick leave or parental leave) where the firm is keeping the same role open for an FCA-approved person, approval to perform the relevant FCA controlled function will continue and therefore the firm will not be required to submit a Form C. See SUP 10A.14.8HG for guidance on interim appointments.

10A.14.8E R (1) If an FCA-approved person has been absent for more than 12 weeks, the firm must notify the FCA on Form D (SUP 10C Annex 6R) within seven business days of the end of the 12-week period.

(2) The firm must also notify the FCA on Form D (SUP 10C Annex 6R) within seven business days of the FCA-approved persons return.

10A.14.8F G Where a firm is aware that an FCA-approved person will be absent for more than 12 weeks that firm can notify the FCA prior to the end of the 12-week period.

10A.14.8G G The duty to notify in SUP 10A.14.17R continues to apply during a temporary absence.

10A.14.8H G (1) Where an FCA-approved person is temporarily absent (see SUP 10A.14.8CG) a firm may decide to appoint another person to perform that FCA-controlled function during the interim period.

(2) Unless SUP 10A.5.6R (The 12-week rule) applies, the firm will be required to make a fresh application for the performance of the FCA-controlled function by a person who has been appointed for the interim period (see SUP 10A.13 (Application for approval and withdrawing an application for approval) for details).
(3) The firm will be required to notify the FCA under SUP 10A.14.8R when the person who was appointed for the interim period gives up the role on the return of the person who was temporarily absent.

10A.14.12 G A firm is responsible for notifying the FCA if any FCA-approved person has permanently ceased to perform an FCA controlled function under an arrangement entered into by its appointed representative or former appointed representative or where any such FCA-approved person is temporarily absent.

10C.14 Changes to an FCA-approved person’s details

... Ceasing to perform an FCA-designated senior management function
A firm must notify the FCA no later than ten business days after an FCA-approved SMF manager permanently ceases to perform an FCA-designated senior management function. …

Permanently ceasing to perform an FCA-designated senior management function means that that person no longer has approval to perform that function. Permanent cessation does not mean that that person cannot return to perform that function, rather that if they do, they will need fresh approval.

Examples of when an FCA-approved SMF manager will have permanently ceased to perform an FCA-designated senior management function include moving within a firm (see SUP 10C.14.1G to SUP 10C.14.2G), moving between firms (see SUP 10C.14.3G to SUP 10C.14.4G), resignation, dismissal, retirement, and death.

In cases of temporary absence (for example sick leave or parental leave) where the firm is keeping the same role open for an FCA-approved SMF manager, approval to perform the relevant FCA-designated senior management function will continue and therefore the firm will not be required to submit a Form C (SUP 10C Annex 5R). See SUP 10C.14.5IG for guidance on interim appointments.

As a result, an FCA-approved SMF manager who returns to perform the same FCA-designated senior management function following such a temporary absence will not need fresh approval.

If an FCA-approved SMF manager has been absent for more than 12 weeks, the firm must notify the FCA on Form D (SUP 10C Annex 6R) within seven business days of the end of the 12-week period.

It must also notify the FCA on Form D (SUP 10C Annex 6R) within seven business days of their return.

Where a firm is aware that an FCA-approved SMF manager will be absent for more than 12 weeks, that firm can notify the FCA prior to the end of the 12-week period.

The duty to notify in SUP 10C.14.18R and the sections of the Act listed in SUP 10C.14.22R continue to apply during a temporary absence.

Where it would not be appropriate for a firm to require an FCA-approved SMF manager to participate in the assessment required under section 63(2A) of the Act during a temporary absence, it will not be necessary for that person… to participate in that assessment in order for the firm to comply with this requirement.

(3) Notwithstanding the guidance at (2), on an FCA-approved SMF manager’s return to a firm, the firm should consider whether it may be necessary to refresh any aspects of the assessment taking into account that the relevant person is now able to participate.

10C.14.5H G (1) Under section 62A of the Act, a firm must provide the FCA with a revised statement of responsibilities if there has been any significant change in the responsibilities of an FCA-approved SMF manager.

(2) SUP 10C.11.6G(6B) explains when a firm should submit a revised statement of responsibilities for an FCA-approved SMF manager who is temporarily absent and that the firm should also submit a revised statement of responsibilities on their return.

(3) The requirement to submit a revised statement of responsibilities is in addition to the requirement to submit a Form D (SUP 10C Annex 6R).

10C.14.5I G (1) Where an FCA-approved SMF manager is temporarily absent (see SUP 10C.14.5CG), a firm may decide to appoint another person to perform that FCA-designated senior management function during the interim period.

(2) Where the FCA-approved SMF manager was performing a FCA required function, the firm will be required to make an interim appointment.

(3) Unless SUP 10C.3.13R (The 12-week rule) applies, the firm will be required to make a fresh application for the performance of the FCA-designated senior management function by the person who has been appointed for the interim period (see SUP 10C.10 (Application for approval and withdrawing an application for approval)). It may be appropriate for the appointment to be time limited (see SUP 10C.12.7G to SUP 10C.12.14G (time-limited approvals) for details).

(4) The firm will be required to notify the FCA under SUP 10C.14.5R when the person who was appointed for the interim period gives up the role on the return of the person who was temporarily absent.

(5) A firm should consider what steps it should take in respect of handover procedures in relation to any interim appointment and the return of a person who is temporarily absent (see SYSC 25.9 (Handover procedures and material)).

10C.14.5J G If a firm is required to have a management responsibilities map, the map should be revised where appropriate to reflect any change in its management and governance arrangements as a result of a temporary absence described in SUP 10C.14.5CG to SUP 10C.14.5IG. In particular, a firm should update the map to take into account any temporary absence required to be notified under SUP 10C.14.5ER or SUP 10C.14.5FG, any interim appointment described in SUP 10C.14.5IG or any return from temporary absence described in SUP 10C.14.5ER (see SYSC 25.2 (Management responsibilities maps: Main rules)).

10C.14.9 G A firm is responsible for notifying the FCA if any FCA-approved SMF manager has permanently ceased to perform an FCA-designated senior management function under an arrangement entered into by its contractor or where any such FCA-approved SMF manager is temporarily absent.

A firm should not use Form H as that form only applies to notifications relating to breaches by those who are not SMF managers.
The FCA has produced notes which will assist both the firm and the approved person in answering the questions in this form. Please read these notes, which are available on the FCA website at: https://www.handbook.fca.org.uk/handbook/SUP/10C/Annex6.html

Both the firm and the approved person will be treated by the FCA and PRA as having taken these notes into consideration when completing this form. Terms defined in either or both of the FCA Handbook or the PRA Rulebook are italicised and should be construed accordingly.
