

Chapter

Article 11 Measurement of retention for the undrawn amounts in exposures in the form of credit facilities

The calculation of the net economic interest to be retained for credit facilities, including credit cards, shall be based only on amounts already drawn, realised or received and shall be adjusted in accordance with changes to those amounts.